RHEUMATISM CANNOT BE CURED UNLESS URIC-O IS USED

Sudden Deaths, Heart Failure and Paralysis Are Caused by Poisonous Uric and Rheumatic Acids.

The Rheumatic person is skeptical regarding the claims of almost any remedy advised as a cure for Rheumatism, and one can scarcely blame him for being so.
All the plasters and liniments combined never actually cured a case of Rheumatism. They may relieve it for one quarter, but it is sure to break out somewhere else. The only true way to cure Rheumatism, is to drive it from the system, for as long as the Uric and Rheumatic Acid remains in the blood, one is never entirely free from the trouble. This is where the value of Uric-O as a permanent cure for Rheumatism comes in. It seeks out the Rheumatic poison in the blood, muscles and kidneys, renders it inert and harmless and drives it out of the system. That is why Uric-O is such an admirable and effective cure for Rheumatism.

The chief reason that Uric-O is such a wonderful cure for Rheumatism is, that it is designed and prepared to cure Rheumatism and Rheumatism only. It is composed of perfect antidotes for the rheumatic acid poison in the system. That is the secret of its wonderful success.
Rheumatism simply cannot exist in a person's system if Uric-O is used.
Uric-O is a powerful medicine, and it will send you a sample bottle free.
If you still feel skeptical about its efficacy you can test it free of charge by cutting out this advertisement and sending same, together with your name and address, also the name of your druggist, to The Smith Drug Company, Syracuse, N. Y., and they will send you a sample bottle free.
To persons who write and say they have never used Uric-O, and want to test it thoroughly, and will agree to take it systematically according to directions, they frequently give a regular 75c bottle free.

Uric-O is sold and recommended in Barre by Rickert & Wells of the Red Cross Pharmacy.

Music and Digestion.

I have often spooned up my soup to waiter and carved a steak, while "Waiting at the Church" appropriately symbolized my vexation at the delay of the waiter in bringing the table sauce. But perhaps the most thrilling experience is to eat a mutton chop to the tendor song from "Carmen." That even rivals eating squash pie and cheese to Liszt's "Second Hungarian Rhapsody." There are two gastro harmonic combinations I have not yet met with, however, but which I believe to be, as a climax to my musical career. One is to eat roast goose to the waltz of "Parsifal," the other to find honey and the dance of Salome from the Strauss opera in happy conjunction. Somehow I could take a grim sort of satisfaction in the irony of these combinations.
But I am still waiting—Atlantic.

buryport, Mass., Thursday, Elihu B.
Tate, of Burlington, was elected one of the Vice-presidents.

William S. Boynton, of St. John's-bury, was elected first vice-president of the American Boynton Association at the annual reunion held at Everett, Mass., Thursday.

While using a telephone during a thunder and lightning shower Wednesday night, Frank Spencer, a Lyndon mail carrier, received a shock causing him to be dead in both ears.

The jury in the $2,000 damage suit of Michael Carver vs. Joseph Angier in Addison county court has returned a verdict that the defendant is guilty and awarded the plaintiff $6 damages and his costs.

James H. Wooley, of Rockingham, has a unique record for school attendance. He is now 14 years old and began school when seven years old. During this time he has never lost a day's school or received a tardy mark.

Rational Man Reaches Advance Age.

S. N. Fluke, of Randolph, reached the advanced age of 90 years Tuesday, June 25, and would have had the congratulation of many friends had any celebration of the event been advisable in his present feeble health. Mr. Fluke was born in Williamstown and resided for many years in Northfield but for the last quarter of a century has been a resident of Randolph. In his active days, he followed the trade of carpenter and painter, and has been a member of Phoenix Lodge, F. & A. M., since 1849.

Honorary Degree for W. E. Ranger.

Walter E. Ranger, of Providence, R. I., state commissioner of public schools, was awarded the honorary degree of LL. D. by Bates College, Lewiston, Me., Thursday at the commencement exercises. Mr. Ranger was present at commencement as an alumnus of the college, from which he was graduated in 1879. He had no intimation of the honor which it was designed to confer upon him, however, until President Clase called him to the platform and he was adorned with the hood. At the commencement dinner which followed the exercises Mr. Ranger was one of the speakers.

Mr. Ranger received the honorary degree of A. M. from Bates College in 1884, and also the same honorary degree from the University of Vermont, Burlington, in 1892.

Total Abstinence Makes Even the Best Barkeeper

Mr. William Kent in Collier's Magazine for April 6th makes the following reference to a total abstaining bartender:

And first of all I sought a friend who kept much company, the man of white apron and busy towel who purveys drink to the thirsty, and I asked him if he were to be known by the company he kept. And he, before replying, dropped into his thick glass, put in the piece of ice and one finger of brown liquor, and with thumb and a pivot and nimble fingers for motive power, revolved the long-handled spoon for a full minute, then he gave to the lemon peel the squeezing twist. "If you mean the bunch I serve here, I should say not.
This is business, and it ain't life. I'm old and I'm up and I flatter myself I know my business. But, if you notice, I don't drink. I see what it does to 'em, and so I cut 'em out. Just the same, I don't play slot machines because the boss gets me to plug some of the winning numbers, and I know what that does to 'em. Yes, I get paid for bar-keeping, and I have to be a man and tired old stories and have to hear how smart they are, and they tell me their troubles while I feed the worst troubles they have over this bar. Me be known by this maudlin bunch of slow suicides?
I guess not. No, when time's up I turn the cash register over to the man and go home to my family and associate with decent people." And he wiped off the bar and deferentially inquired the desires of the next gentleman.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running nose or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, the hearing will be lost forever.

Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give one Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh that cannot be cured by Bull's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unhappily About It.

Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes, to learn that Newb's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00.

A WOMAN'S QUICK EYE.

It Was the Means of Gaining a Fortune at Monte Carlo.

Nearly every one who has been to Monte Carlo has heard of "Mamma" Viand, a little, bent old French woman, a widow, who played for years.
"Mamma" Viand played roulette each day from morning until night. Her beady eyes, twitching nervously, saw nothing but the ivory ball as it fell into the cell. As they watched her staggering from the gaming tables late at night people pitied her.

Her whole soul, her life, seemed absorbed in the awful desire of winning.
The old woman at times lost heavily—for here, then, she regained her losses.
For a long time she was enabled to live and continue her feverish pursuit of the game.

One night the old woman lost nearly all her store. As she passed from the table, despair in her eyes, her attention was attracted by another wheel. She stopped and bent over the table.
Again and again the wheel spun around and stopped. The old woman's eyes sparkled. A flush suffused her pallid cheeks.

As she left the room she clasped her hands, and her laugh—a shrill, mocking chuckle—startled the gamblers as omnipotent, uncanny.

"Better watch the old woman!" one of the official lookouts told a detective.
He followed "Mamma" Viand to her hotel. He listened outside of her door.
There was no alarming sound. In a short while she extinguished her lights and evidently had retired.

The following evening she reappear-ed in the gaming hall. Her eyes still sparkled, her cheeks were still flushed.
With her were several notorious gamblers. They approached a table. "Mamma" Viand began to play.

She won. The gamblers, who had loaned her money, watched. She played a second time and won and a third time and won. The gamblers looked on amazed and saw the old woman raking in thousands of francs.

During the evening the old woman sat by the table, playing persistently.
Her winnings doubled, trebled, quadrupled and piled up about her.

The management became alarmed.
A consultation was held. Special detectives were sent to watch her. Scores had gathered about the table, looking on breathlessly at her wonderful run of luck. The detectives reported to the management that "Mamma" Viand was playing a certain combination of numbers that invariably won.

One of the directors besought the old woman to desist playing. The bank would be broken, he declared. She smiled and continued to play.

The director offered her $50,000 to cease playing. He doubted the figure if she would tell him the secret of her success. He importuned her to take $200,000, $250,000, only cease waging her successful battle for gold.

Finally he offered her $300,000. Accepting this, "Mamma" Viand, gathering together her fortune, told him very quietly that in passing the table the night before her quick eye had detected that the ball of this particular wheel stopped at a certain place at regular intervals. The managers examined the wheel, found that it was out of order and congratulated themselves upon having compromised with the old woman—Philadelphia North American.

Tears Not Idle.

"My doctor tells me a good cry is beneficial."

purse, displayed a first class return said.—New York Press.

you. Jack—Oh, yes, she does. Tom—How do you know? Jack—When I told her that I had no money to get married on she offered to borrow some from her father.—Philadelphia Inquirer.
